Raiatea, the sacred island...

Discover Raiatea, an island that is so dear to the hearts of Polynesians! The Taputapuatea marae, a sacred archeological site, classified as a Unesco heritage site, was the starting point for Polynesian navigators who, after receiving blessings, left in sailing canoes to conquer the oceans.

The landscape of Raiatea is extraordinary, with mountains covered with greenery and a coastline lined with coconut trees. Immerse yourself in this lush nature as you float up the Faaroa River.
